

Insurance Claims

Third Edition

Alison Padfield, BA (Oxon), Lic Spéc Dr Eur (Brussels), BCL (Oxon), Barrister

The fully updated new edition of this excellent practical text covers five years of developments in the law of insurance, including legislative reform and significant new case law.

Insurance Claims, Third Edition succinctly summarises the law of insurance claims, including claims against insurers and claims against insurance brokers.

The most accessible guide available

For busy insurance law practitioners this is the most concise and accessible guide to the law on the market. It presents the law as it currently stands, avoiding ancient authority where modern authority is available.

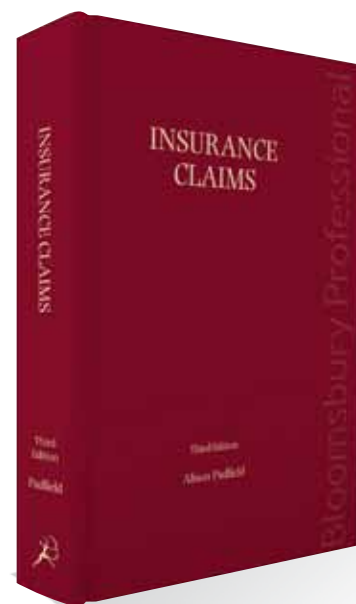

It includes footnotes that routinely identify relevant passages in each case by page number or paragraph –so that you can quickly discern the relevance of each case and save valuable time.

The most up-to-date guide available

This new edition will cover the Law Commission's Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Bill, as well as significant Law Commission proposals in relation to business insurance.

Insurance Claims, Third Edition is also updated to include:

- The Third Parties (Rights Against Insurers) Act 2010
- Notification of claims and circumstances following Kajima and Kidsons
- Developments in relation to damages for late payment by insurers
- Establishing the basis of the insured's liability to a third party following Omega Proteins v Aspen Insurance
- The relevance of commercial purpose to the construction of policy wordings in the light of the EL Trigger Litigation
- Waiver and estoppel in relation to procedural conditions following Kosmar Villa Holidays v Syndicate 1243

“Alison Padfield’s book has admirably combined brevity with clarity of exposition... an excellent book”

Review of a previous edition by Professor Robert Merkin, co-editor of the Lloyd’s Law Reports and President of the British Insurance Law Association (BILA)
