Seminar – 7th July 2015

The Insurance Act 2015 – A New Dawn for Commercial Insurance Law?

After a decade of deliberation by the Law Commission, and much contentious debate, the reforms relating to non-consumer insurance contracts are now law. The Insurance Act 2015 received Royal Assent on 12 February 2015 and comes into effect on 12 August 2016. On 7th July 2015 a panel of Devereux's insurance practitioners and guest speakers from within the insurance industry (including Catlin and the Mactavish Group) will examine the anticipated effects of the new Act.

Topics covered include:

- potentially contentious issues of concern to insurers, policyholders, brokers and their legal advisers
- the preparations which should be put in place within the commercial insurance market
- current trends in policy drafting which seek to anticipate the effect of the new Act

A more detailed invitation with guest speakers and venue details will follow soon.
