Bruce practices exclusively in the field of employment law. His work spans the breadth of this area and he is particularly sought after for his expertise in relation to industrial action, restrictive covenants, company re-organisations, union recognition and de-recognition, and discrimination. Bruce won 'Employment Silk of the Year' at the Chambers UK Bar Awards in 2017, and was nominated for Employment Barrister of the Year in 2025. He was twice nominated in his first two years in silk by both The Lawyer Awards as 'Barrister of the Year' and Chambers UK as 'Employment Silk of the Year'. He was also named Lawyer of the Week by The Times newspaper in January 2010 following his success in the BA 'Christmas' injunction. Prior to taking silk, Bruce was twice nominated as 'Employment Junior of the Year' in the Chambers UK Bar Awards.

He is ranked as a Star Individual in Chambers UK 2025 and as a Leading Silk in Legal 500 2025.

Bruce's principal areas of practice are broadly as follows:

Collective disputes and industrial action – he has acted for both employers and trade unions on a wide range of collective issues ranging from injunctions to restrain strike action to multi-Claimant claims under section 145B Trade Union & Labour Relations Act 1992 as well as claims relating to business restructuring.

Recent examples of his work include acting for:

- Birmingham City Council in injunction and committal proceedings relating to the 'bin strike';
- BALPA in Blacklisting claims brought on behalf of pilots employed by Ryanair;
- British Airways in multi-Claimant Employment Tribunal proceedings following business restructure during Covid pandemic;

- Serco in multi-Claimant Employment Tribunal proceedings under section 145B TULRCA, currently the subject of an appeal to the EAT.

High value/multi-party discrimination claims – he has acted in large-scale multi-party discrimination claims in the ET and appellate courts.

Recent examples include acting for:

- Citibank in a multimillion-pound age discrimination claim which went to the EAT;
- British Airways in the Covid related proceedings referred to above;
- McDonalds in age and sex discrimination claims following on from ECHR investigation.

High value contractual employment claims in the High Court

Recent examples of his work in this area include:

- Acting for the former director general of the CBI (Tony Danker) following his dismissal from post;
- Acting for a former director of Sun Life Assurance in multimillion-pound bonus claim brought against his former employer.

Reports, inquiries and investigations – he has been commissioned to write significant reports in a variety of areas relating to employment law or organisational issues.

Bruce is the author of:

- The Carr Report: The Report of the Independent Review of the Law Governing Industrial Disputes, published in 2014; and
- The Independent Review of the Culture of the Royal College of Nursing, published in 2022.

In addition, he is frequently instructed to undertake disciplinary or grievance investigations, up to and including conducting disciplinary, grievance or appeal hearings.

Recent examples include:

- Conducting a disciplinary investigation into directors employed by Zaha Hadid Design Limited;
- Conducting a grievance appeal on behalf of the government of St Helena following a complaint by a senior law officer;
- Chairing an appeal against expulsion from the RCN by its former Chair of Council.

Mediation and alternative dispute resolution – he has significant mediation experience as an advocate, having acted for employers, individuals and trade unions in such events. He is also an accredited mediator, having trained with the Society of Mediators. Even before this accreditation, he was regularly in demand as a mediator and has continued to act in the role since the completion of his formal training. He was appointed by ACAS as an arbitrator in 2019.

Recent reported cases across his wide practice areas include:

- Morais v Ryanair [2025] ICR 863 - Acted for Capt Morais and others (instructed by BALPA) in the first Court of Appeal case to deal with the scope of the Blacklisting Regulations 1999 in which the court ruled that strike action was within the scope of 'activities of an independent trade union' for the purposes of the Regulations.
- British Airways v Rollett [2025] ICR 242 - Acted for British Airways in the first EAT decision on indirect associative discrimination and the decision of the CJEU in Chez.
