
Rob Schultz

CALL 2023

Rob is transferring to the bar having been a Senior Associate at an international law firm in London. He came to London after completing an LLM in the United States in 2020 as a Fulbright Scholar. His UK litigation experience at US and City firms has focussed on competition (antitrust) opt-out collective proceedings and international arbitration disputes.

Rob began his litigation career as a Barrister and Solicitor at Lee Salmon Long, a Legal 500 Band 1 boutique litigation firm in New Zealand (2015-2019) where he acted as sole and junior counsel before the New Zealand courts and in commercial arbitrations.

Prior to commencing practice, Rob completed a two-year judicial clerkship at the Court of Appeal of New Zealand, clerking for the Hon Justice Sir Douglas White KC (2013-2014).
